In the quaint town of Bellbridge, where the rhythmic clatter of knitting needles fills the air, Daisy Bell's peaceful world is shattered when her beloved knitting group, the Jolly Needles, becomes embroiled in a deadly mystery.

When Helen, the group's enigmatic leader, is found lifeless in her cottage, pierced by a knitting needle, Daisy's curiosity is piqued. Determined to uncover the truth, she wields her knitting skills like a detective's magnifying glass, scrutinizing every stitch and unraveling a tangled web of secrets.

As Daisy delves deeper into the investigation, she discovers that Helen's murder is more than just a random act. Hidden agendas, unspoken grudges, and intricate relationships intertwine, creating a complex tapestry of motives.

With the help of her loyal friends and fellow knitters, Daisy embarks on a perilous journey, following every thread that leads her closer to the killer. From the bustling yarn shop to the secluded knitting retreat, she unravels a trail of clues, each stitch bringing her closer to the shocking truth.

As the investigation unfolds, Daisy realizes that the killer is not just a murderer but a master manipulator, adept at hiding in plain sight. With her keen observation skills and deep understanding of human nature, Daisy peels back layers of deception, exposing the darkness that lurks beneath the seemingly idyllic facade of Bellbridge.

In a climactic showdown, Daisy confronts the killer, armed with her knitting needles and an unyielding determination to bring justice to her friend. Amidst the flurry of flying yarn and the clash of wits, she outsmarts her adversary, revealing the true face behind the mask of innocence.

Needled to Death is a captivating mystery that combines the cozy charm of a knitting circle with the thrilling suspense of a murder investigation. Daisy Bell is an unforgettable heroine, a woman who uses her passion for knitting to unravel secrets and seek justice. With its intricate plot, relatable characters, and heartwarming moments of camaraderie, this book will appeal to mystery lovers and knitters alike.
