The FTA was signed on 17 June 2018 and entered into force on 1 January 2020. It is the first FTA between Australia and a major trading bloc, and the first FTA between the EU and a country in the Asia-Pacific region.

The FTA covers a wide range of areas, including:

- Trade in goods
- Trade in services
- Investment
- Intellectual property
- Competition
- Government procurement
- Dispute settlement

The FTA is expected to have a significant impact on economic activity in both Australia and the EU. It is estimated that the FTA will increase bilateral trade by €15 billion per year and create over 100,000 new jobs.

The FTA is also expected to have a positive impact on the environment. The FTA includes provisions that promote the use of renewable energy and reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

The FTA is a significant achievement for both Australia and the EU. It is a comprehensive and ambitious agreement that is expected to have a positive impact on economic growth, job creation, and the environment.
