

To the Field of Waterloo: A Novel of Love, Loss, and Redemption

In the aftermath of the Battle of Waterloo, a young widow named Charlotte Lennox finds herself alone and adrift. Her husband, a British officer, was killed in the battle, and she is now left to rebuild her life without him.

Meanwhile, Captain James Wentworth, a disillusioned officer who fought at Waterloo, is searching for redemption. He is haunted by the horrors of the war, and he longs to find a way to make amends for his sins.
