

Unlock the Treasures of Low-End Melody: Master the Hal Leonard Baritone Ukulele Method

NOTES ON THE E STRING

We'll begin by learning notes on the E (or first) string. To fret a note, depress the string just behind the metal fret wire and not directly on it. Practice these notes slowly and repeat the name of each note as you play them. This will really help facilitate your memorization of the basic starting notes.

open

F

1st fret

G

2nd fret

A

3rd fret

TABLATURE

In tablature (or tab) notation, the horizontal lines represent strings, and the numbers indicate which fret to play (0 = open). You'll always see the tab under the staff.

Play these whole notes with your thumb and count "1-2-3-4," striking each note on the first beat of each measure and then counting "2-3-4."

COUNT: 1 2 3 4 | 1 2 3 4 | 1 2 3 4 | 1 2 3 4

TRACK 1 Now, try playing E, F, G, and A as half notes and count "1-2-3-4," striking each note on the first and third beat of each four-beat count per measure.

COUNT: 1 2 3 4 | 1 2 3 4 | 1 2 3 4 | 1 2 3 4

TRACK 2 Keep using your thumb and count "1-2-3-4" while playing these quarter notes. Remember: play one note on each of the four beats in a measure.

COUNT: 1 2 3 4 | 1 2 3 4 | 1 2 3 4 | 1 2 3 4
